

From Ferguson to Palestine

Repression, Violence and Resistance

February 17, 2015 6-7:50 p.m. CE-105

Panel Discussion Featuring
Dr. Rabab Abdulhadi,
Ethnic Studies, SFSU
Dr. Gary Fields,
Communication Studies, UCSD
Dr. Robin D.G. Kelley,
History, UCLA

Moderated by
Dr. Ahlam Muhtaseb,
Communication Studies, CSUSB

By drawing parallels between African American and Palestinian experiences of state power, this panel will illustrate the ways in which minorities and indigenous people both undergo and resist repression. Topics to be discussed will include, but are not limited to, police brutality, structural racism, and the historical context of the Israeli/Palestinian conflict, including the unique struggles of women and children in these conflicts. Using Gaza and Ferguson as case studies, the panel also aims to critique the dominant narratives about conflict and race relations.

is co-sponsored by
Diversity Committee, COE Ed.D. Program, Department of Communication Studies,
International Studies and Programs, Arabic Program, and Department of English.
For more information, please contact Ece Algan, Associate Professor and CIMES Director at algan@csusb.edu ext 7-7469